The Buffalo Soldiers Museum is located in the Historic 3rd Ward, in the Museum District and is dedicated to the brave men and women of color who courageously served in every great American War and Military Campaign. In 1866, through an act of Congress, legislation was adopted to create six all African American Army units. Come find out about the history of these soldiers and how they got their nickname "Buffalo Soldiers." For more information see the website www.buffalosoldiermuseum.com. We can grab a quick lunch at the Café Express restaurant in the basement of the Museum of Fine Arts before we head over to Clayton Library. LUNCH IS NOT PROVIDED IN REGISTRATION FEE. At Clayton Library and you will have a chance to catch up on your research or perhaps begin researching your own Buffalo Soldier.
